EDITORIAL FLINGS

When chauffeurs fail
To mend their ways,
Send them to jail
For sixty days.

"Why are the pretty girls of Paris like wild cherries?" asks a Paris bachelor. Well, we would say that it is because they make you pucker up your lips. Are we right?

A pint of bootleg hootch, my man,
May on your seeing put a ban;
You'll take this hint—if you are wise:
Pass up the drinks that paralyze.

When you see a woman with oldish face and blood bay hair you know that she was aiming at a Titian tint and the appearance of twenty-three, but laid it on too thickly.

Said a pretty Paris girl the other day to her father: "Papa, I want one of those long felt hats." The indulgent father forked over the money, and now her head fills a long felt want.

Parship wine, they say, is fine,
(I never liked the parship)
But if its wine is so darned fine
I may have misjudged a Worthy vegetable.

A Philadelphian who was jilted by a girl fifty years ago committed suicide the other day. A man wearing socks with holes in 'em finally becomes rashly importunate, weary of breath.

The Michigan educator who says cigarettes should be smoked in a corn shed is in need of a completer education. Inflaming the feelings of a Michigan editor is not as destructive as burning a barn.

When a man buys a suit of clothes made of cloth that was imported despite the barrier tariff he will know he's paying for the wall, and feel that he had it built by a contractor on the cost plus plan.

Scientists say the best brain food is corn meal, so, if you wish to flatter the newspaper man by some delicate allusion to his mental capacity, all you have to do is to call him a mush-head—then run.

Jazz music is being urged by some prison reformers as a source of diversion for penitentiary inmates. Another blow at the Constitution. Have they forgotten that clause about cruel and unusual punishment?

When to the movie we gally go
Of noices we see
A wondrous brood
Which say how good
The film next week will be.
Sometimes one week is rather bleak
But patrons all agree
"It's understood how very good
The film next week will be."

Pain may be dispelled, according to Cene, by saying rapidly: "It passes, it passes, it passes." Possibly, but the fellow who can say that when he misses the nail and splits his thumb with the hammer, is the sort of fellow who could say, with equanimity, "Let it hurt, let it hurt, let it hurt."

Most of the good old sources of jokes are now banned, and to add to our dejection, the weather is so so-lubrious that nobody comes along with that old gag: "Have you got your overcoat out of soak?"

The boys met in the barn the day Was big to them with fate,
For whether or not to "hooky" play Was the subject of debate.

"Twas put to vote, the chairman's throat,
Proclaimed "The ayes have chose!"
But a skunk came in with an extra vote
And gave it to the nose!

Don't break away from your pastures for untried fields. Every community affords a commercial pasture in which can be found something to fill every want. The home merchant is the pasture from which every citizen should fill his wants. Those who choose to break through the barrier and shop in non-home productive stores are the losers and the community next.

MORAL—Never rush from green pastures into barren fields.

What about the person who pays an admission to see the movies, and who, before the feature is ended, begins to climb over other folks who desire to see the finish of the performance, but whose pleasure is destroyed because of the mad rush of a considerable number, to whom it means more to be the first out than to get their money's worth. Whew, that's a long sentence, but we just had to say it. Please have a heart and keep your seat until the "show" is ended.

Keep watch of your words, dear people,
For words are wonderful things;
They are sweet like bees fresh honey
Like bees they have terrible sting.
They can bless, like the warm, glad sunshine,
And brighten a lonely life;
They can cut, in the bitter contest,
Like an open, two-edged knife.

Appearances are so deceiving, dear people! Wednesday at noon a man, woman and a young girl, the latter attired in the height of present-day fashion, got out of a big limousine in front of Oberdorfer's drug store. The girl was a vision of loveliness, with a complexion absolutely faultless, free from the least suspicion of drug store or beauty parlor cosmetics. Her eyes were deep pools of sunshine and innocence, and grace marked her every movement. The charming creation of white in which she was enveloped served to enhance her exquisite beauty. When she smiled it was like a burst of sunshine after a storm, and her pearly teeth gleamed through rosy lips. She was the perfection of lovely womanhood. As they left the car, the elderly woman, presumably her mother, called her attention to a spot on her otherwise immaculate skirt. And then what did this peerless young beauty do but shock the bystanders by exclaiming in a voice that dripped sweetness: "Naow, mam, whur'd I git that there at?"

THE ACID TEST

The biggest blessing of any community is its banks and the conservative men at their heads. They are guardians of our financial existence and welfare, aiming at all times toward security. Can you imagine the man, who has fallen prey to one of the many disposers of valueless stocks and bonds, seeking financial relief? Then is when he learns only too late that he has been victimized of his earnings, whereas, a few minutes consultation with his home banker would have made him secure for all times had he sought and accepted his advice.

MORAL—Consult our home bankers first, he is our neighbor and friend.

If There Had Been No War.
If the world had been without war or epidemics since the year 138 A. D., statistics show that the present population of over 1,500,000,000 could have descended from a single couple at that time.

LESSON FOR OCTOBER 8

THE BIRTH AND CHILDHOOD OF JESUS

LESSON TEXT—Luke 2:1-20; 40-52.
GOLDEN TEXT—And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and man.—Luke 2:52.
REFERENCE MATERIAL—Matt. 1:18; 2:1-23.
PRIMARY TOPIC—The Boy Jesus.
JUNIOR TOPIC—The Boyhood of Jesus.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Jesus at Home and at School.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Religious Training of the Young.

I. The Birth of Jesus (vv. 1-7).

1. Time of (vv. 1-3). It was at a time when the Jews were coming under the Roman power. It was a most propitious time for the introduction of the gospel. The whole world was under one rule, making it possible for ministers to go from place to place easily and without molestation.

2. Place of (vv. 4-6). Bethlehem, as the prophet had foretold 700 years before (Micah 5:2). God moved the emperor to enforce the decree of taxation in time to cause Mary to be at Bethlehem.

3. Circumstances of (v. 7). His surroundings were of the most humble sort. The Almighty Creator condescended to take upon himself humanity—to be born in a manger, becoming the poorest of the poor that none might be hindered from coming to Him.

II. The Birth of Jesus Announced (vv. 8-20).

1. To Whom (vv. 8, 9). The shepherds who were watching over their flocks by night. The glorious gospel message was first given to laboring men.

2. By Whom (v. 9). The first gospel sermon was preached by the angel of the Lord. The angels have part in making known the gospel to lost men. These glorious beings no doubt deeply sympathize with fallen, sin-cursed men.

3. The Nature of the Message (vv. 10-14). It was good tidings of great joy. It was good tidings because the way of salvation was about to be opened for all—Jew and Gentile. So glorious was this news that a multitude of the heavenly host accompanied it with a song of praise. It is through Jesus Christ that God's kindness and good will are made known to man.

4. The Shepherds Witnessing (vv. 15-20). They made a prompt investigation of the angel's message.

III. The Child Jesus Growing (vv. 40-52).

Jesus Christ was divine, but His deity did not interfere with His development as a human being. The processes of His physical, mental and spiritual growth were the same as those of any normal human being.

1. Jesus Tarrying Behind at Jerusalem (vv. 40-43). At the age of twelve years a Jewish child took his place as a worshiper in the temple, for he was considered a "child of the law." Being conscious of His mission when His mother and Joseph were returning from attendance at the Passover, Jesus tarried behind to enter the temple and inquire into the meaning of the ordinances of God's house.

2. Jesus Found in the Temple (vv. 44-47). When His mother and Joseph had gone some distance on their journey they perceived that Jesus was missing and sought for Him among their kinsfolk and acquaintances. Not finding Him there they returned to Jerusalem, where they found Him in the temple. (1) He was "sitting" (v. 46), showing that He was no passing visitor or sightseer. He was perfectly at home in His Father's house. (2) He was "hearing" (v. 46). He was hearing the teachers of God's Word. This shows that He was eager to learn God's will. (3) He asked questions (v. 46). His growing mind was inquisitive. It more than received what was taught; it inquired after it. (4) He answered questions (v. 47). His answers showed great wisdom, such as to astonish those who heard Him. Yet we should not surmise that He was consciously displaying His wisdom. It was not an exhibition of His divine wisdom, but the expression of the workings of a perfect human mind suffused by the Holy Spirit.

3. Mary's Complaint (vv. 48-50). She remonstrated with Him for His behavior. To this He replied in a dignified, yet tender manner. He made no apology, showing that He was more than the son of Mary.

4. Jesus' Obedience (v. 51). Though He was fully conscious of His divine being and mission, He lived a life of filial obedience.

5. Jesus' Development (v. 52). (1) Mental. He "increased in wisdom." (2) Physical. He "increased in stature." (3) Spiritual. He "increased in favor with God and man."

Wisdom to Be Desired.
Wisdom is better than rubies; and all the things that may be desired are not to be compared to it.—Proverbs 8:11.

The Truly Valiant.
The truly valiant dare everything except doing any other body an injury.—Sir P. Sidney.

Happiness.
Action may not always bring happiness; but there is no happiness without action.—Disraeli.

MILLION VISIT THREE SHRINES

MANY CLIMB BIG MONUMENT

Big Share of Guests in National Capital Make Trip to Mount Vernon—Recently Completed Lincoln Memorial Popular.

Washington.—More than 1,000,000 persons make pilgrimages each year to Washington's home, Mount Vernon, the beautiful Lincoln memorial and the Washington monument, the latter being the most popular of the three shrines among visitors to the national capital.

Visitors numbering 34,113 went during July to the top of the Washington monument, located a few hundred yards south of the White House. More than one-fifth of them clambered up the 898 steps in order to see the memorial tablets on the various landings inside the shaft. The remainder rode to the top in the electric elevator which has a capacity of 35 persons. More than 5,250,000 people have visited the top of the monument since it was opened for observation purposes October 9, 1888. No entrance fee is charged.

Lincoln Memorial Popular.

The Lincoln memorial, recently completed and opened to the public, was visited by 31,383 persons during July. Located in Potomac park, directly west of the Washington monument, it is rather inaccessible for pedestrians; visitors usually go there by automobile. On a recent Sunday 2,000 persons were recorded as entering the great building. It is rapidly becoming a shrine for tourists. No entrance fee is charged.

Washington's old home at Mount Vernon on the Potomac river in Virginia, 16 miles from Washington, long has been the mecca of pilgrims from every part of the world, who go by steamboat, electric train and automobile. Kept as nearly in its original state as possible by the Ladies Mount Vernon association, it is a delight to all Americans. During July approximately 29,000 persons visited Mount Vernon and during the year admissions numbered 236,000. The proceeds of a 25-cent entrance fee help keep the estate in first-class condition.

The house where Abraham Lincoln died, located opposite Ford's theater at 516 Tenth street, Northwest, this city, is another shrine visited by many tourists. It was bought by the United States in 1896 for $30,000.

WOMAN ONCE RICH, A VAG

Mrs. Cisette Calzabina Unable to Find Relatives After Unfortunate Foreign Marriage.

New York.—Mrs. Cisette Calzabina, thirty-five, once a woman of wealth and position, according to the report of a probation officer, was arraigned in Essex Market court on a charge of vagrancy.

Patrolman Reilly of the Mercer street station arrested her when he found her sleeping in a hallway at 124 Macdougall street.

The probation officer's story was to the effect that Mrs. Calzabina was born of wealthy parents in Denver and that after studying music in New York and European cities she married an Italian, who deserted her. Then she was not able to find her relatives, the misfortunes of her married life having weakened her mind, the officer said.

Magistrate Rittenberg adjourned the case and sent the prisoner to the Waverley home.

'MISSING LINK' HUNTERS SAIL

Captain Salisbury Accompanied by Daughter and Motion Picture Men Leave for Malay Peninsula.

San Francisco.—Capt. Edward A. Salisbury, scientist, left San Francisco on a steamer for the Malay peninsula, where he will search for what has been termed in science "the missing link."

Accompanying Capt. Salisbury were M. C. Cooper, formerly a lieutenant colonel in the aviation corps of the United States army; Duke Zeller, experienced explorer; Edward Burghard of Columbia university, New York; Miss Dorothy Salisbury, the explorer's daughter, and two motion picture men.

Captain Salisbury said rumors had come across the Pacific ocean from time to time about a tribe of white men in the jungle of the Malay archipelago who had short, vestigial tails.

Feed Convicts on 17.7 Cents Daily.
Ossining, N. Y.—According to Warden Lewis E. Lawes, the cost of feeding prisoners at Sing Sing prison for August was 17.7 cents a day for each man, or 5.9 cents a meal. Pastry and pudding are included in the menu several times a week.

Catch 7½-Foot Eel

Taftville, Conn.—A party of local fishermen on Tadpole pond landed 138 pounds of bullheads the other night, three eels that weighed more than ten pounds and several perch. At a point below Butte bridge they caught a turtle weighing 50 pounds and one lamprey eel seven and one-half feet long.

MORROW'S ADMINISTRATION PROLIFIC OF COLONELS

Possibly no Kentucky Governor has commissioned more Kentucky Colonels than Governor Morrow, and he has about a year yet to serve. During his incumbency the Governor has been very generous in conferring the honorary rank among his friends in all parts of the State, with the result that he has a goodly lot of staff Colonels for any emergency.

In later year Kentucky Governors have appointed indiscriminately, often at the solicitation of their friends who desire to convey a compliment. Formerly the colonelcy appointments were less numerous, and it was tacitly understood that those honored would equip themselves with a dress uniform and appear in full regiments and gold lace with the Governor at State functions.

Now, however, it is a rarity to see a Kentucky Colonel in battleship order. The new staff officer gets a beribboned commission bearing, the great seal of the State and is dubbed "Colonel" for a while, and that is the last of it. The Governor rarely sees them, and probably would not know them if he did.

Making hay while the sun shines has its counterpart in making Colonels while the Legislature is in session. It is then that the Governor is importuned by the solons to confer the coveted rank on their constituents, which generally he does, and new Colonels are turned out as fast as the necessary commissions can be executed. The Kentucky Colonel long has been an institution, and his numbers are not destined to grow less.

REVIEW OF POULTRY AND EGG MARKETS

Receipts of poultry, especially of spring chickens, continue to show an increase, which is seasonal. Because of the large supply, prices have declined somewhat. Indications point to a very large crop to be marketed the next three months.

There is a light supply of fresh eggs and the price tendency is upward. Fine new laid eggs are in demand and command top prices.

Creamery butter production shows a slight increase in some sections on account of better pasture conditions. A good demand prevails and the market is steady.

HEART TO HEART TALK

The affairs of the citizens of a community are the affairs of the local merchants; it is their business to keep in touch with the prosperity, as well as the unavoidable contingencies that befall the average family. They are worth-while judges of those who are, or who are not deserving in time of need. You need them and they need you to make your community a success. Co-operate with them and you will share in the prosperity, contentment and happiness that exist in a prosperous community.

MORAL—In time of prosperity think of adversity.

Success consists of having others wish they were you.

Three Peaks Out of One.
Remnants of the ice age are particularly interesting in the Rocky Mountain National park, where huge valleys have been plowed out through countless ages, possibly 5,000,000 years ago. Glaciers transformed what was a single mountain mass into three peaks—Long's, Meeker and Lady Washington—as they are known, with Long's rising to an elevation of 14,255 feet, or nearly three miles above sea level.

Just History

In '76
The Colonial Dame
Spun her cloth
By Candle flame.

In 1860
In Grinoline bright,
She greeted her guests
By Coal Oil light.

And later on,
How time does pass
Her home was lit
By flickering Gas.

But the girl of to-day
Who wants her home bright,
Just presses a button
And has Electric Light.
